

Understanding Ferrari F430

By Jonathan Freeman

The Ferrari F430, known internally as the Type F131, entered production in 2004 as the replacement for the highly successful 360 Modena. It remained in production until 2009, and during that time it cemented itself as one of the most driver-focused mid-engined sports cars of its era. The car is powered by a 4.3-liter V8 engine that produces approximately 490
